

Please ensure that the Indiana Do Not Call List is not compromised in any way. Since the individual consumers of Indiana pay for their own telephone service for their own use, it is unfair for businesses to utilize the telephone system to impinge on the rights of citizens. If I wish to contact a business I call the business. I do not want to be bothered by sales calls.